

Press Release
Avignon, 16 December 2005

GSE pursues continued growth and reinforces top management

GSE has been developing its Turnkey Construction business for over 30 years now, offering innovative design and construction for industrial and service buildings.

GSE works with key clients in over fifteen countries, accompanying them in their expansion abroad by providing personalized management of their construction projects, guaranteeing the same quality of service wherever they locate.

The experienced teams at GSE have crafted a new dimension in the Turnkey Construction business, adapting their solutions to the economic constraints in the markets they work in, in addition to the purely technical aspect of the construction projects.

Following several years of growth and development on the international level, GSE Group is presently adapting its organization to position it around two major segments: logistics and industry/services, and to focus it on a greater degree of decentralization.

A new general management team will be working with me to manage this newly adapted organization. This new team includes:

President	Jean-Pierre HUGUES
Deputy Managing Director	Michel HUGUES
Assistant Managing Directors:
Administration and Finance	Christophe KLIEBER
Development
Northern Europe / Marketing and Key Accounts	Benoît ESCHBACH
Southern Europe / Group Sales Coordination	Jean-Michel FRAMMERY
Germany – Central Europe	Thomas KARMANN
France: GSE and specialized subsidiaries	Marc SINTES
Technical
Technical Management: Southern Europe	Roland PAUL
Technical Direction: Northern Europe	Manuel SANNA

This new reorganization at GSE follows the recent departure of Patrick Canac and Francis Robert on 2 December 2005.

The GSE Group specializes in the delivery of turn-key buildings in the industrial, service and logistic sectors.
